HOW TO ASCERTAIN
THE WILL OF GOD

PROPHETIC BLOG

Do you know that God covets the unique features and characteristics of our soul and yearns to combine them with the beauties of His own person? He does not intend to destroy our personality. Rather, He intends to “conform” it to His own image and fill it with the expression of His life. It is born through the Cross; the old is shed off through His death upon the Cross.

God longs to redeem our soul; for the soul is the seat of our independence, pride and rebellion. Independence finds its assertion through our soul, until we have experienced the work of the Cross and are made aware of our weakness. Most of us are too strong in our own estimation; therefore, God subjects us to things that weaken us. Hebrews 12:5b-6 “My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him. For whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives.”

Having said this, remember Galatians 1:15 “..when it pleased God...” We must give God “elbow room” as Oswald Chamber said. We plan and figure and predict that this or that will happen, but we forget to make room for God to come in as He chooses! Do not look for God to come in a particular way, but do look for Him. Keep your life so constantly in touch with God that His surprising power can break through at any point. Live in a constant state of expectancy and leave room for God to come in as He decides.

Concentrating on God each day is an act of separating myself from everything else and spending time alone with Him. Those things God has appointed for you to do will become clearer. This is not a one time experience but an ongoing process.

Now if you just want to go about life some other way, since you have been born again, remember the carnal mind opposes God! That’s just the way it is!

Turn in your Bible to Romans 8:5a, 6a, 7: For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh. For to be carnally minded is death. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

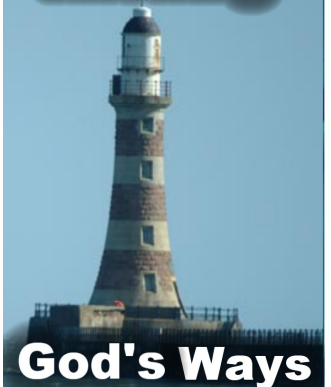

Those who think they can do it on their own end up obsessed with measuring their own moral muscle but never get around to exercising it in real life! Those who trust God’s action in them find that God’s Spirit is in them, living and breathing God! Obsession with self in these matters is a dead end; attention to God leads us out into the open, into a spacious, free life! Focusing on self is the opposite of focusing on God. Anyone completely absorbed in self ignores God, ends up thinking more about self than God. That person ignores who God is and what He is doing and God isn’t pleased at being ignored!

Father, the tendency of my life has been toward carnality. Sometimes its strong pull is more than I can resist. I am sorry. This has not brought glory to You or to Your Kingdom. It has brought grief to me. Teach me how to yield to Your Spirit so You can always win out in me. I ask You, in Jesus’ Name. Amen

The contest in which God’s Spirit wins: Romans 8:1-14. Please read and study.

SEEKING THE KINGDOM OF GOD PART 2

Dr. Daniel E. Bohler

OSWALD CHAMBERS said, there is one you must stay humble before at all times and that One is God! He must become your all and all!

There is only one relationship that really matters and that is your personal relationship with your personal Redeemer and Lord. If you maintain that at all cost, letting everything else go, God will fulfill His purpose through your life. One individual life may be of priceless value to God's purposes and yours may be that life!

Remember when God's will is in complete control, He removes all pressure. And when we deliberately choose to obey Him, He will reach to the remotest star and to the ends of the earth to assist us with all of His Almighty Power.

MY COMMENTS ON OSWALD CHAMBERS REMARKS FOR US:

God is a person. We are created in His likeness. We can choose; God also chooses. We have feelings; God has feelings. He desires to be wanted and He can be grieved. Thus the Lord is knocking upon the door which leads from the natural to the spiritual; from our purposes to His Purposes. Revelation 3:20 "Behold I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him and he with Me." He is seeking those who will personally respond and turn aside into His Presence. This is the relationship with our God that Chambers is talking about. You see, relationships have to be developed. In Song of Solomon 7:11 God says "Come, My beloved, let us go forth to the field; let us lodge in the villages." You see, the Lord expects a response from us, which will lead us into the path that He has chosen for us. Notice He said "Come, My beloved." This opportunity is reserved for overcomers as it takes an effort on our part to become quiet, in order to become sensitive, responsive, and obedient to His words relevant relationship. God looks for this everyday. He came to Adam and Eve everyday. (Read about it in the book of Genesis) Then one day God said "Where are you?" He knew where they were. He could see them. God was talking about their spiritual affection for Him. They had found other affections which led to their disobedience. When Jesus said in Matthew 16:24 "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me." It takes denying the pull of the flesh each day to get alone with Almighty God. This is where the entire church is missing it because of the business created by each and every one of us. The time is so short! We must change in this area of our lives! I found as a business man for over 20 years and as a ball player years before this, that if certain principles are followed, much energy is expended in the out workings of the principles, as there is a highly competitive business and sports environment and only those who work at it succeed. They must overcome all obstacles.

This is the same in the Spiritual realm. Just as there is a preparation for success in the physical realm, so also there is preparation for a proper response to the spiritual realm.

When we accept salvation, we accept the Lord and are "covered" with the "Garment of Salvation." But there is another garment - "the Bridal Garment" which must be "woven" by us. This "process" of weaving the Bridal Garment, whereby I "qualify to become" His Bride, as the expression of His life here in the Earth begins. I became "one" with Him, so that His life will be expressed through my life.

This preparation, the weaving of the Bridal Garment, is our submission, our obedience, the commitment of our lives and our being separated from that which is less than His will. Revelation 29:7,8: "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready. And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints."

We are living toward the end of man's time, and approaching the time of the Millennial Kingdom, which will come through the direct intervention of the Lord! When we commit our lives and when we lay down our life and make Jesus Lord, we become a part of His Kingdom.

There is something worth going after--His Bride, His Wife has made herself ready - that she might be "arrayed in His Glory: to be the expression of His life on this Earth.

The goals that we set for our lives determine the direction in which we are destined to go. They give a sense of purpose, but goals must be prioritized in order to achieve our objectives. What things would you like to change this year (2010)? OR What goals and priorities have you set for this year (2010)?

God has told us in His Word, what our main priority for this and every year ought to be. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said "Do not worry, saying what shall we eat? Or what shall we drink? Or what shall we wear? For your Heavenly Father knows that you need all these things." But seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all of these things shall be added to you.

Our main priority must be the pursuit of God and His righteousness.

The word "Priority" means or implies precedence, or taking of first place in terms of time, activity, focus and attention.

We all have much to do; however the Lord instructs us to seek first His Kingdom and his righteousness and then all of the other issues will be successfully worked out.

1 Kings 3:5-13 Solomon set right priorities in the sight of God.

Key 1: Oh Lord God, help me set the right priorities in your sight this year.

Solomon's attitude is seen in His father, David in the Twenty Seventh Psalm.

Now we must realize that David had serious problems:

Psalm 27:

1. His enemies had plotted against him.
2. There was the threat of war.
3. Opposing armies had encamped around him.
4. The wicked devised evil schemes against him.

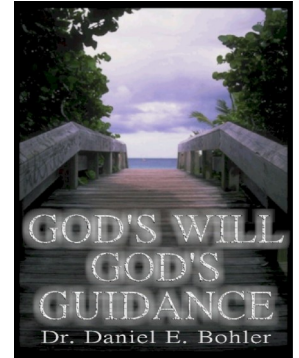

You would think David would be consumed with these problems. (The threats are all around him)

David had a clear and main priority.

So did the Apostle Paul in Philippians 3:7-14.

Well, what about you?

Will you readjust your priorities, your time and your energies to seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness? His promise to you is that all things will be added!

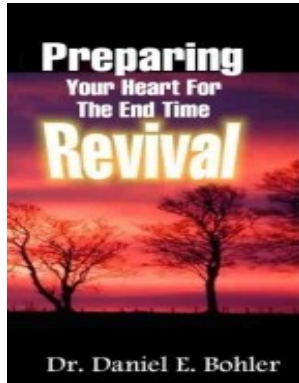

God's Will God's Guidance
One of the reasons why all of us are afraid to commit ourselves to doing the Will of God is because we don't fully understand the Goodness of God and we're concerned that He might ask us to do something that we might not like! If we commit ourselves to do Gods will, He will give us His Guidance. 4 CD Series

Step # 1

Seeking God is for us to determine to set aside time to wait on the Lord.

Step # 2

We must make room by setting aside a time and a place.

Then we can begin to wait on the Lord. We should not fight any thoughts that appear. As air in a glass, they cannot be pulled out. Rather something else must be put in to replace them, or better, to displace them. The Word of God will help us to do this. Jeremiah 23:24 "Can anyone hide himself in secret places, so I shall not see him" says the Lord; "Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the Lord.

We can assume ourselves with the fact that the Lord is present. This is a tremendous truth and will greatly help us once it really gets hold of us! Our making use of the fact of His Presence, as we wait on the Lord, is like recharging a battery. It is a renewing process, joining of our spirit with the Lord through faith. It will grow gradually and become our delight. As our mind is renewed by waiting on the Lord, it is brought closer to His mind.

1 Corinthians 2:16c "But we have the mind of Christ."

Romans 12:2 "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

The only way to enter this relationship of His abiding Presence is to begin waiting upon the Lord on a regular basis, with a determination not to stop until we have met with and supped with Him!

Then our waiting in His Presence will become a joy; for a consciousness of His Presence will become stronger and stronger. Then we can carry His Presence out with us to abide with us in all the things that we do!

HOW TO ASCERTAIN THE WILL OF GODGeorge Mueller

I never remember, in all my Christian course, a period now (in March 1895) of sixty-nine years and four months, that I ever SINCERELY and PATIENTLY sought to know the will of God by the teaching of the Holy Ghost, through the instrumentality of the Word of God, but I have been ALWAYS directed rightly.

I SEEK at the beginning to get my heart into such a state that it has no will of its own in regard to a given matter. Nine-tenths of the trouble with people generally is just here. Nine-tenths of the difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is.

1--Having done this, I do not leave the result to feeling or simple impression. If so, I make myself liable to great delusions.

2--I see the Will of the Spirit of God through, or in connection with, the Word of God. The Spirit and the Word must be combined. If I look to the Spirit alone without the Word, I lay myself open to great delusions also. If the Holy Ghost guides us at all, He will do it according to the Scriptures and never contrary to them.

3--Next, I take into account providential circumstances. These often plainly indicate God's Will in connection with His Word and Spirit.

4--I ask God in prayer to reveal His Will to me aright.

5--Thus, through prayer to God, the study of the Word of God, and reflection, I come to a deliberate judgment according to the best of my ability and knowledge, and if my mind is thus at peace, and continues so after two or three more petitions, I proceed accordingly.

In trivial matter, and in transactions involving most important issues, I have found this method always effective.

PROPHETIC BLOG - JANUARY 22, 2010, 11:20 A.M.

DR. DANIEL E. BOHLER

The Spirit of the Lord says to the United States of America that because of the hundreds of thousands of prayers coming to Me from many sections of your Christian Communities, I have chosen to shake this Nation financially and in every economic areas. Your Earth will shake! Your Stock Market will shake! And what you call Your Churches will shake! Your Media outlets, -- Television, Radio and Internet-- will go into a tremendous change! It will sound like, and it will look like something out of another world; but it will be Me, saith the Lord. Radical things will begin to explode in all of your Halls of Government!

My True Church will rise to a level of excellence in the Spirit and in physical preparation and accountability, like it has ever known before in America!

The Political Arena will be moved upon by Me Personally, says the Lord; some will appear to look good and some will appear to look bad, as well as the politics of the misdirected churchmen!

All of this is because of the intense prayer of this Nation. Watch for great disturbances in the Oceans!

It will be the greatest year in many years for Ministries who have come to grip with their pride and selfishness and impure motives, and allow Me to bring great repentance. Those who will not, will face great calamities.

2 Corinthians 7:10 For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world produces death!

So we ask you, Lord Jesus, to purify our hearts and cause us to live for You and You Alone! Amen!

Reaching For Your Purpose

Dear Partners and Friends:

God has been so good to us all! He is so faithful!
This has been a great year in the Lord. He has shown himself strong to save, to deliver, to set free and to heal people in the meetings He had us in this year.

Dear Ones, you are a part of it all. Because of you we can go and do what the Lord calls us to do. You are a vital part of it all. Your prayers and your financial help enables us to go and do.

Thank you for all the cards, letters, pictures and notes you send. We read them all and we continually pray for all the requests you send us. You are a great blessing and a joy to us.

We love you and cherish you.
