LET'S TALK ABOUT OUR PURPOSE

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

The Jubilee Year (50th year) came after seven weeks of years (7 times 7)= 49 years, when alienated lands returned to the original owners and Hebrew bondservants were freed.

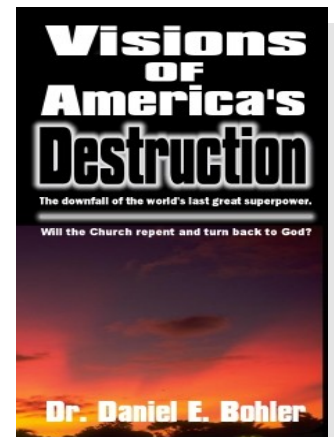

The Fiftieth Jubilee (70 times 7) came at the end of 490 years. In our time, this is a 500 year period of time. In the Lord's timing in the Church Age, we are at the end of the Fourth Jubilee - the fourth 500 year period, consisting of 490 years each, which means that at this present time we are at the end of the two thousand years of the Church Age. That being said, we must cry out for mercy on this country. I live in this Nation. I have lived and worked in other Nations. But this Nation is my home and I don't want satan and his big friends to take it down. The Scriptures are clear that at the end of the Church Age, problems beyond anything we can imagine are going to be upon us; but we are to fight the good fight of faith on our knees in prayer for the sake of the end time harvest! We are to pray to God our Father in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord who is the Lord of the Harvest that He will send laborers into His field! This is Bible teaching not man made-up because he needs something to say. Are you involved in the harvest of souls?

God is not too small to intervene in the affairs of this Nation, but He will not do it unless He sees the repentance in our Country that He is looking for.

When God begins to call a nation back to Himself, He does it as gently as possible; but the gentle portion of God's mercy is growing thin. God allows what we allow. He may in some countries, like ours, let the bad weather move over us constantly, such as prolonged droughts or flooding, tornadoes, hurricanes. Then if the people still refuse to repent He will allow something more severe, such as turning them over to someone who will put them into captivity. We have waited far too long to repent as a Nation, and we are now on the verge of running out of time before we are placed into complete captivity and left there for a long time.

I had a visitation of the Lord on this very thing a few years ago. It was the most devastating and horrible thing I ever saw. It left me so undone that I was no good for many days. Then the Lord told me to make a special DVD about this and warn this nation. The DVD is VISIONS OF AMERICA'S DESTRUCTION. It has been shown on Direct TV, Sky Angel Network, World Harvest Network and many Independent TV stations as well as churches and schools.

I urge you to get this and show it to your prayer groups. Stand with us and pray that God will turn the Muslim agenda into a revival for America. This is our only hope as we finish the work that has to be done. Bro. Dan.

Visions of Americas Destruction

America, some have called her the world's last great superpower. Proud patriotic Americans have looked upon their homeland as an invincible power. She has been viewed as immune to the poverty, famine, and human devastation that has plagued many other places across the globe. For several years many men and women of God have begun to warn America that Her sin will cause the downfall of Her prosperity and the destruction of Her land.

LET'S TALK ABOUT OUR PURPOSE

Dr. Daniel E. Bohler

Life truly becomes exciting when you know that you are being directed by the Lord.

Philippians 3:12 "Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me."

The Amplified Bible says, "But I press on to lay hold of (grasp) and make my own, that for which Christ Jesus, the Messiah, has laid hold of me and made me His own..

You see, each of us have a (unique) "that" (purpose) for which the Lord has laid hold of us, to the extent that we touch the lives of others whom the Lord brings across our path, the more likely we will be to discover the purpose for which we have been apprehended.

If we begin to focus on ourselves, we will be unfilled, frustrated, and restless.

These are sure signs that we are missing the purpose for which the Lord apprehended us.

If this is apparent to you in any form, increase your daily seeking the Kingdom of God. Jesus said "Seek first the Kingdom of God." Notice the word first: that means ahead of everything else! Only by seeking the Kingdom will other things come into their proper perspective.

Philippians 3: 13-14 "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

Remember, we cannot reach our goal by longingly looking back!!

Luke 9:62 "But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God."

The clearer our purpose is to us, the easier it becomes for us to make tough decisions, especially those which are necessary in order to abandon the good and grasp the best. You see, if our goal is fuzzy, we will be unable to make tough decisions.

Proverbs 29:18a says this to us, "Where there is no vision, the people perish."

Another translation reads "Where a people dwell without restraint." We must exercise restraint in order to reach our goal.

I Corinthians 9:24 "Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it."

But you may say, "It is good to know that the Lord has a goal for me, but how do I find it?" First, do not ask people! Just seek the Kingdom and all things will be added unto you. God will even send a prophet along to confirm what has been deep in your heart as you have been seeking His Kingdom. Then the where withal to bring it to manifestation will come to full view! The Bible says everything is established by two or more witnesses. Now, while seeking and waiting remember to read Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths."

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

By Gary Kah

Since President Obama took office in January, international efforts to push the United States into a new world economic/political system have greatly accelerated. And since the G20 Summit in early April, events have moved forward with such rapidity, it is almost overwhelming. In fact, our office has been able to review only a small percentage of the reports being funneled our way. Some days we have been practically shut-down by the sheer volume of information we've received in the form of emails, urgent letters and phone calls, and face-to-face discussions.

It would take a book to communicate what we have become aware of, and some of it has already been made public via the Internet and cable news services. Therefore, in preparation for this article, I sought the Lord regarding what specifically I should share with our readers concerning the current world situation. Here are some of my thoughts about where we are headed and what, if anything we can do.

From the beginning of the Obama Administration it has been clear that this president is intent on bringing about radical change as quickly as possible. His goal: To move America in a completely different direction, away from our Judeo-Christian roots toward a new set of values based on universal/interfaith principles with a Marxist element. He refers to this shift in core values as "the new foundation" (his words).

This shift became evident within days of Barack Obama's inauguration. The following are just a few of the unsettling decisions our new commander-in-chief made during his first month in office.

* He reversed the previous ban to fund US abortions. This decision has global implications as well because it freed up funding to support abortions at the international level. One media source noted: "In a move related to the lifting of the abortion rule, Obama is also expected to restore funding to the UN Population Fund (UNPFA)."

* In late February, Obama's new administration moved to "undo a last-minute Bush administration rule granting broad protection to health workers who refuse to take part in abortions or provide other health care that goes against their consciences."

*Speaking in Springfield, Illinois on Lincoln's 200th birthday, Obama threw in a plug for Charles Darwin, saying "And on this day, that is also the bicentennial of Charles Darwin's birth, let us renew that commitment to science and innovation once more..."

*Obama promised to repeal the "don't ask, don't tell" policy regarding gays in the military. For years the homosexual lobby has worked to reverse this policy. Obama is obliging them.

*President Obama's first phone call to a foreign dignitary wasn't to a head-of-state but to Palestinian authority President Mahmoud Abbas. (However, the Time Online was quick to point out, "Mr. Obama also spoke to President Mubarak of Egypt, Ehud Olmert, the Israeli Prime Minister, and King Abdullah of Jordan.")

* His first television interview after taking office wasn't with an American news-outlet but with the Arab satellite station Al Arabiya. During that interview he appeased the Middle Eastern Muslim community stating that, "we are ready to initiate a new partnership based on mutual respect and mutual interest."

* Finally, his work to introduce and pass the largest "economic stimulus" package in the history of the world put him on course for being the biggest of the big spenders. With only a few strokes of a pen, Obama's stimulus program weighed America down with an incomprehensible burden of debt and assured future monetary inflation. Peter Schiff of Euro Pacific Capital writes:

In his first televised speech before Congress, President Obama asserted that prosperity will return once the government restores the flow of credit in the economy. It may come as a surprise to him, but an economy cannot run on consumer loans, furthermore, credit stopped flowing in the U.S. for a very good reason: there was not more savings left to loan. Government efforts to simply make credit available, without rebuilding productive capacity or increasing savings, are doomed to destroy what's left of our economy.

At the rate that Obama is spending, by 2012 the US Government will be $16-18 trillion in debt. If these statistics hold up, the average 20 year-old would pay well over $150 thousand during his working career just for interest on our federal debt.

What else do we expect from a leader and a nation that have turned their backs against God? On every front - be it political, economic or religious - Godly wisdom is being abandoned in favor of reckless indulgence and moral depravity. Spiritual discernment is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

We are in the final stages of America's demise; and it is very painful to witness. As the psalmist wrote, "If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" (Psalm 11:3) Given the current decadent condition of our country, God would have to apologize to many empires of the past if He did not judge America soon. The words of David ring true of our nation: "The wicked freely strut about when what is vile is honored among men." (Psalm 12:8) How much longer will God wait?

MARCHING TO EUROPE'S BEAT

One way that God has judged nations in the past is by lifting His protective covering, allowing them to be brought under the authority and control of foreign powers. I believe this process has begun with America. Europe's leaders are increasingly calling the shots. This was readily apparent at the recent G20 Summit in London.

President Obama catered to virtually all of their demands, including their call for a "global central bank" and a new international reserve currency, which could further diminish the dollar's value and eventually replace it. In return, he and Michelle were treated like royalty. Europe's most prominent media figures raved over them. Britain's prime minister, Gordon Brown, lavished his highest praises on Barack Obama because he was so agreeable and easy to work with. In short, it appears that Obama's vision matches theirs. Where President Obama willfully supports a global currency and eventual world government, or whether his arms are being twisted behind-the-scenes, is of little consequence at this point. Either way, Europe and its consortium of international allies are now running the show. The borrower is always the servant to the lender! The fact is, the United States needs Europe's money - as well as that of China, the Arab countries, and anyone else willing to loan us some - to stay afloat. This gives the globalists an enormous amount of leverage over us. Thus far, we have only witnessed round one of the financial crisis. As long as Obama moves in the direction of one-world government (as envisioned by European leadership) and is able to bring the US Congress along with him, international leaders may reward him by pumping their resources into the US economy to create a "soft landing." This would turn Obama into a heroic figure if the economy rebounds. However, if he is unable to persuade Congress to relinquish our sovereignty in favor of more powerful emerging global institutions, I believe we will witness round two, which would be far more severe.

Our options are limited, as we are between a rock and a hard spot. Either we allow Europe to force us into a world government and enjoy a degree of prosperity as a result, or we buck the tide and watch everything collapse around us - but perhaps retain a measure of freedom.

Our situation appears quite hopeless, doesn't it? This is what happens when a nation's citizens and leaders continually thumb their noses at God, rejecting His principles and wisdom - in spite of warning after warning. It eventually leads to a dead end.

JESUS, OUR ROCK

Thankfully, for Christians who have placed their hope and trust in Jesus Christ, the road does not end here. The turbulence and trials of this life should only heighten our dependence on the Lord. We must put less of our faith in the material things of this world, while placing more and more of our confidence and trust in Jesus Messiah who loves us and has an eternal purpose for each of us.

In addition, God has given us His Word as a source of inspiration and strength. By its prophecies we are warned so that we are not caught off guard, as others. By its teachings we are made wise in order to apply God's principles and standards to our lives. God has also given us His Holy Spirit to comfort and guide us into all Truth. Most importantly, He has promised to be with us always, even "to the very end of the age." (Matt. 28:20)

Regardless of whether we have 3 months or 3 years of relative freedom and prosperity left, our lives should not be consumed by monetary matters. Yes, it should be a high priority for every believer to get out of debt and prepare for hard times in a physical, practical way; God will reward such foresight and prudence. However, it is far more important that we are spiritually prepared, so that we will be able to stand strong regardless of what comes our way.

Some of us are being tested even now, being refined so that we will be more effective and loyal to Christ in the days ahead. I can tell you personally that the last few months have been among the most challenging of my life. Satan has come against our efforts from seemingly every angle to stop this message from getting out. He has not succeeded; but we have paid a price for what we are doing. It has not been easy, yet God is faithful, and through it all we have become more determined to stay the course and put our complete trust in Him.

A growing number of Christians are becoming discouraged by the increasing level of difficulties they are facing. Some of them believe that God may be punishing them for some reason, when in reality it is Satan who is coming against them because of their obedience to God. We must never confuse God's wrath with Satan's persecution. Satan persecutes the servants of God, while God judges and eventually brings His wrath upon the wicked and unrighteous - those who have rejected His gift of salvation (the atoning sacrifice of Jesus).

If you are a repentant believer and are experiencing severe battles on multiple fronts, take heart, you are not alone. You must be doing something right!

Don't allow your struggles to make you bitter toward God, but allow them to drive you closer to Him. Keep your eyes fixed on the prize at the end of the race. Your faithfulness will be rewarded!

I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 3:14)

Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

(James 1:12)

DIVINE GUIDANCE

Dr. Daniel E. Bohler

Promised to the Obedient.

Into Pleasant Paths.

Psalm 23:2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters.

In Making Decisions.

Psalm 25:9, The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way - and Psalm 32:8.

Unto The End Of Life

Psalm 48:14, for this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death;

By Wise Counsel.

Psalm 73:24, Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel and afterward receive me to glory.

By the Still Small Voice

Isaiah 30:21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, this is the way walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

In The Midst Of Uncertainties.

Isaiah 42:16, And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them, also Isaiah 48:17.

By Divine Illumination

Luke 1:79, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace: also John 10:4.

Into All Truth

John 16:13, Howbeit when he, the spirit of Truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

We Must! Seek Guidance!

Psalm 5:8, Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make the way straight before my face.

Jeremiah 10:23

O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walks to direct his steps.

Jeremiah knew God, yet felt utterly dependent upon God. The Lord's approval is with those who are dependent upon Him, who seek counsel from the mouth of the Lord.

We must remember a man and a woman in a perfect environment - with one act of disobedience, the human race fell; and that one act of disobedience cost the son of God His life. Some of the consequences of being out of the will of God are seen when Israel continued in her disobedience to God.

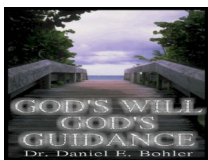

We need to read Deuteronomy 28:65, And among these nations shall you find no ease, neither shall the soles of your feet have rest: but the Lord shall give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

You can see these are conditions which are symptomatic of being out of the will of God; (Uneasiness), (Restlessness), (Uncertainty), (Fearfulness), (Lack of assurance). (Discontent), and (Spiritual Bondage).

There are others, but these indicate that something is out of alignment in our relationship with the Lord. When these conditions are present, it would be well to consider our having missed the will and purpose of the Lord.

Order the CD's God's Will God's Guidance, it will help you navigate through 2010.

God's Will God's Guidance

One of the reasons why all of us are afraid to commit ourselves to doing the Will of God is because we don't fully understand the Goodness of God and we're concerned that He might ask us to do something that we might not like! THOUGHTS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Wrong choices and being slow to do what you know to do may slow you down.

Progress may be even backing up in our eyes, but if you repent and allow the Holy Spirit to teach you by them, you will be back on track and moving forward again. Only with God can you start over more than once with an unblemished, untarnished, one hundred percent, still-intact potential - the same potential He has always intended you to fulfill.

Regardless of what anyone tells you, God's plans and purposes for you are not diminished because you messed up in the past. Your present, your future, and your relationship with the Lord and with others will only be diminished by an inability on your part to willingly receive God's grace and mercy for restoration and wholeness.

If we have true love and compassion for one another, we will understand that Eros and Agape are behavioral, and not doctrinal. Our love for one another will flow out of us what ever it is. If it is Eros (what's in it for me - in other words I'm around if its going to help me or point me to what I want now or in the future). Agape - the love of Jesus Christ (I prefer you. I want to be a comfort or blessing to you. I will sit down and talk with you and listen to you and I know you will listen to me. I want to know if there is something I can do to make life more rewarding for you. I'll take the time to do it. I'll give of myself not expecting anything in return. My motives and intentions are pure).

Having said this there will be many start-overs in our lives and God will say "Let's go again" - forgetting about all of our yesterdays for he is a loving, kind God and when we Agape Love each other starting with your own family, it is amazing how much grace comes to all we do. This is life in Christ lived out on Earth, loving and caring for people and keeping our minds on others and not on ourselves. That was the life of Jesus, our Example. Man Oh Man, when will we live this out and walk in the grace that Jesus walked in?

The Nature & Personality of the Holy Spirit

"If a person will pray in The Holy Ghost and constantly spend time with God, God will help us not to make the mistakes that destroy us....What I'm trying to bring to your attention is that Jesus sent The Holy Spirit and we have to recognize that The Holy Spirit is more real than the person sitting beside you."-Dr. Daniel Bohler
